Several MPs asked PQs about the Integrated Shield Plan (IP), such as measures to ensure increases in premiums are fair and sustainable, to publish information for policyholders to make better-informed decisions, and about the scope of claimable items. Numerous PQs were also asked about the waiting times for medical appointments, treatments and entry into nursing homes.

Going once, going twice: Bills debated by MPs

The second reading of a Bill is the first major opportunity for MPs to debate about it. The number of speakers can indicate the level of interest and engagement the Bill has generated among MPs.

Bills that were read a second time

Anti-Money Laundering and Other Matters Bill

Good Samaritan Food Donation Bill

Land Surveyors (Amendment) Bill

The Anti-Money Laundering and Other Matters Bill was the most hotly debated with 16 MPs speaking on it. The Bill sought to make it easier to prosecute money laundering cases and tightens casino rules. Some pointers raised by MPs include:

- Additional compliance burden for businesses.
- Expanding efforts to include single family offices, fine art and crypto.
- Restitution to crime victims.
